Rosemead School District Announces the Recognition of Mildred B. Janson Elementary School on Being Named a 2020 i-Ready Distinguished School for Remote Learning Success by Curriculum Associates

Rosemead, California: The Rosemead School District announces the recognition of Mildred B. Janson Elementary School on being named a 2020 i-Ready Distinguished School for Remote Learning Success by Curriculum Associates.

Janson School was recognized as a direct result of their i-Ready Personalized Instruction usage and Diagnostic data during March-May of Spring 2020. The recognition was awarded as a result of the work of staff, lessons passed by students, for students trying their best, and the dedicated support of their families through the diagnostic tool. Along with being named a 2020 i-Ready Distinguished School for Remote Learning Success the school will receive a gift from Curriculum Associates in the near future in celebration of their great accomplishment.

Mildred B. Janson Elementary School is honored to receive this accolade and thank our staff, students and families for their hard work last spring. Congratulations to our entire learning community we are incredibly proud of your hard work and dedication!

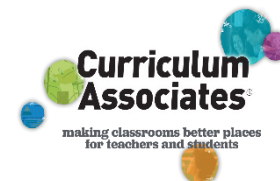

“I am very proud of all of you and our entire Janson community! Keep up the great work,” expressed Principal Gabriel Cardenas.

“Janson’s success represents our District commitment to providing all students high quality learning experiences and support through this difficult time. i-Ready is one of the many rigorous opportunities we offer to our students as part of our Distance Learning Program. Congratulations to all of our Jaguar students and staff,” stated Superintendent Alejandro Ruvalcaba.

On behalf of the Rosemead School District Board of Trustees, Administration, and staff we congratulate Mildred B. Janson Elementary School students and staff for their accomplishment.
