News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: May23, 2017

Rosemead School District has Announced that it will become an Approved Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) to ensure Children Receive Nutritious Meals during the Summer

Rosemead, California: The Rosemead School District has announced that it will become an approved Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) site to help ensure that children continue to receive nutritious meals during the summer school session, summer camp, and STEAM camp. The SFSP is funded through the United States Department of Agriculture, which plans to serve more than 200 million free meals to children 18 years and under at approved SFSP sites throughout the country.

The Rosemead School District is excited to participate in this program to help ensure that no child goes hungry this summer. All children, ages 1-18, are eligible to receive free breakfast and lunch meals on weekdays! No meal applications are necessary during summer meal service. All children are automatically qualified for free summer meals. Meal service times, as well as start and end dates vary depending on site location (information listed in chart below).
